SDG 16 as a compass for navigating intersecting crises

30 May – 1 June 2023
Rome, Italy

SPEAKER BIO

Ms. Virginia Padovese, Managing Editor & Vice President Partnerships, Europe, Australia and New Zealand, NewsGuard

Padovese was born in Italy and earned a masters degree in Journalism and Communications at University of Trieste in 2004. After working in Milan as an intern at the press office of Mondadori Electa publishing house, Padovese moved to Australia, where she worked for 10 years as a radio reporter, broadcaster, and digital producer for Special Broadcasting Service, a multicultural and multilingual television, online, and radio network.

In 2018, Padovese moved to New York where she joined NewsGuard's team focussing on misinformation and disinformation.

Padovese is the Italian Digital Media Observatory NewsGuard's manager. IDMO is a consortium led by Luiss University selected by the European Commission to fight disinformation in Italy.

Padovese is also a teacher at IED, Istituto Europeo di Design in Milan, and she has been invited to speak about misinformation and disinformation at La Sapienza University in Rome, the School of Journalism in Urbino, and the University of Padua.
